

Summary of John Fitzpatrick, Seth Dion and Marco Abreu's witness reports and testimony.

At about 9:15 to 9:20 pm John, Seth and Marco knock on the front door of the Downing house. The door was open but the screen door was shut. John went into the foyer area and then knocked on the foyer door that was closed.

They heard a noise on the side street of the Downing house and made their way to the street.

They saw a male exiting the Downing back yard and walk down the street. They thought it was Eddie and yelled down the hill to him. They did not receive a response.

John, Seth and Marco then went over to the O'Brien's house to call the Downing house, but received no response. They then went to their friends Garvey's home.
